

Galileo[®] Fit Extreme

The strong package for highly intensive whole-body training.

Includes Galileo[®] Fit, the standard model for the well-equipped fitness area and 2 integrated Galileo[®] Mano 30 dumbbells for relaxing and demanding training.

The combination of the proven Galileo Fit with its large training platform and high amplitude and the Galileo Mano 30 enables highly intensive whole-body training. The technical combination in one device now enables the simultaneous training of the lower extremities, the trunk and the upper part of the body with the upper extremities. The central control of the Galileo Fit and the dumbbells is made via the intuitive control panel on the hand rail. The dumbbells can be separately switched on or off.
